

William Andrews Clark Society

Investing in the future of the LA Phil.

Welcome on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Los Angeles Philharmonic – all of us on the Board appreciate everything that you have done to sustain the LA Phil by joining the Clark Society. I look forward to the work we will do together to benefit future generations of musicians and music lovers.

The LA Phil was founded by William Andrews Clark Jr. and his friends, folks like you and me, who saw the need for a symphonic orchestra in Los Angeles. The LA Phil's success, innovation, and excellence has been sustained year after year by supporters like you. We should all be proud of being part of one of the greatest orchestras in the world.

As we look to the future, it is important to celebrate our collective legacy – Clark Society members have been very generous in making gifts to the LA Phil in their estate plans. Please let us know about your future gift intentions, so that we may say thank you today!

Additionally, there may be tax benefits to making a legacy gift. There are so many options – our gift planning team would love to speak with you about the many ways to make a difference at the LA Phil and benefit your overall Legacy plans. As always, any plans should be evaluated in concert with your tax and legal team.

Again, thank you for everything you have done and everything you are about to do,

Thomas L. Beckmen
